

Kevin Ronan is a graduate of Arizona State University, where he earned his Bachelor of Music Education and Master of Music Performance degrees. While a student at ASU, he studied with Sam Pilafian, world-renowned brass pedagogue and co-author of The Breathing Gym. Kevin also served on the instructional staff of the ASU Athletic Band Department for five years, under the direction of James G. Hudson.

From 2007-2018, Kevin was a brass instructor for The Concord Blue Devils Drum and Bugle Corps. Prior to joining The Blue Devils staff, he marched in the hornline and served as tuba section leader. In 2019, Kevin joined the brass staff at Carolina Crown.

In addition to teaching, Kevin works year-round as a music arranger and copyist. On the marching field, bands performing his arrangements have been recognized as BOA Super Regional Champions and Grand National Finalists, as well as State Marching Contest Finalists and Champions. From 2012-2018, he was a member of the instructional and creative staff for the Marcus High School Marching Band. In 2019, Kevin joined the instructional and creative team at Hebron High School.

Kevin currently resides in Lewisville, TX where he is a private lesson instructor at Hebron High School and Flower Mound High School.
